The comment period for Wilcox closed yesterday, as of yesterday no comments were received, generally it takes a full week for any last minute comments to get posted, I will continue to monitor the docket to see if any comments are received in the next week or so. See link for docket. If no comments are received we will likely be able to add the site to the final NPL as part of the next rulemaking (tentatively scheduled for October 2013).

Todd left me a message concerning the need for a possible public meeting, and the need to get out to the community pretty quickly due to recent concerns. Todd's contact information is listed below.

Todd, Bart is the RPM and will be the primary site contact for Wilcox, and Bill is the community involvement coordinator. Let me know if you need anything else from me. I will keep you in the loop as far as comments and final listing. How did the site visit with removal go?
